Inter-American School (IAS), opened in 1961, is a fully accredited private Christian school enrolling 223 students in grades Pre K–12. IAS holds accreditations from the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and AdvancEd with an invitational membership to the Tri-Association.

The IAS campus spans nine acres and serves the educational needs of students in the region of Quetzaltenango, Guatemala. IAS demographics are as follows: 95% of students are from Guatemala, 3% are from the United States of America, and 2% are from various other countries.

Offering a US High School Diploma, IAS has a robust and rigorous academic program that aligns with Common Core Standards. Students are required to complete a minimum of 24 credits in order to graduate, and the maximum credits allowed per semester is 3.75. In addition to their academic core, all students are required to complete 60 hours of community service. Students' final requirement is to create and defend a comprehensive portfolio that allows them the opportunity to reflect on their academic achievements, their experiences as a learner, their contributions to their school and local communities, and their post-secondary ambitions.

Graduation Requirements

A minimum of 24 credits is required for graduation within the following subject areas: English 4 credits, Math 3.5 credits, Social Science 3.5 credits, Science 3 credits, Foreign Language 2 credits, Bible 4 credits, Electives 2 credits, Community Service 0.5 credits, Senior Portfolio 0.5 credits, Physical Education 1 credit.
